

27 NOV 2022 | ELDER LEE EE YANG WHEN THE SPIRIT FLOWS | EZEKIEL 47:8-12

SPIRITUAL OBJECTIVES

At the end of the sermon discussion, cell members will:

1. Recognise the signs that will come when the Spirit flows.
2. Get ready and participate fully in the spiritual harvest.
3. Commit to be immersed in the Spirit and allow the Holy Spirit to take us wherever He desires.

SERMON SUMMARY

Continuing in the series “The Harvest is Here”, Elder Ee Yang unpacks for us the Holy Spirit’s role in the spiritual harvest. Ezekiel 47:8-12 describes the spiritual harvest when the Spirit is flowing in the midst of God’s people.

When the Spirit flows, whatever is dead becomes alive. Not only we become alive with the living water, we start to give life to the people around us – John 7:37-49. Our posture is important. We need to be in the River, not the Dead Sea, not the reservoir. There is no flow in the Dead Sea.

When the Spirit flows, what is empty becomes filled – conversions of those formerly outside the faith increase dramatically and a spiritual revival takes place. Elder Ee Yang encourages us to persevere in reaching out to our pre-believing family members, even Christian brothers and sisters who have backslidden in the faith.

When the Spirit flows, barrenness turns into fruitfulness. Revelation 22:1-2 speaks of the tree of life. We can bear twelve crops of fruit, yielding fruit every month and bringing healing to the nations. When we are filled with the Spirit of God, our doing becomes fruitful.

We need to immerse ourselves in the River and allow the River to take us wherever the Spirit desires!

SERMON RECAP

Continuing in the series “The Harvest is Here”, Elder Ee Yang unpacks for us the Holy Spirit’s role in the spiritual harvest. A spiritual harvest is a celebration of abundant life, blessings and fruitfulness through a relationship with Jesus – see John 10:10.

Ezekiel 47 gives a prophetic picture of the millennial kingdom – a harvest – when Jesus comes back again and rules for a thousand years. Ezekiel 47:8-12 describes the spiritual harvest when the Spirit is flowing in the midst of God’s people.

When the Spirit flows, whatever is dead becomes alive. Not only we become alive with the living water, we start to give life to the people around us – John 7:37-49. When we are filled with the Spirit, life oozes out of us. We start to impart life to the people around us, lighting up our surroundings. Hope, love and faith follows this life of the Spirit – see 2 Corinthians 3:6. Our posture is important. We need to be in the River, not the Dead Sea, not the reservoir. There is no flow in the Dead Sea.

Elder Ee Yang shares the pastoral concern about a mindset that seeps into the church post-pandemic, whereby (a) Sunday is relative, (b) online service is relative, and (c) community is relative. The RiverLife Church values of ROOTED, FAMILY, DISCIPLE-MAKING, SERVANTHOOD and SENT are undermined. Elder Ee Yang says that the church is meant to be:

- A learning and praying assembly
- A miracle – happening assembly
- A loving and serving assembly
- A worshipping and praising assembly
- An evangelising assembly.

He appeals to and encourages the church family to return to onsite physical services as God is doing amazing things in our church!

When the Spirit flows, what is empty becomes filled – conversions of those formerly outside the faith increase dramatically and a spiritual revival takes place. As in Iain Murray’s teaching on true revival, we can expect “an outpouring of the Holy Spirit resulting in a new degree of life in the churches and a widespread movement of grace among the unconverted. It is an extraordinary communication of the Spirit of God, a superabundance of the Spirit’s operations, an enlargement of His manifest power.” Elder Ee Yang encourages us to persevere in reaching out to our pre-believing family members, even Christian brothers and sisters who have backslidden in the faith.

When the Spirit flows, barrenness turns into fruitfulness. Revelation 22:1-2 speaks of the tree of life. We can bear twelve crops of fruit, yielding fruit every month and bringing healing to the nations. When we are filled with the Spirit of God, our doing becomes fruitful.

We need to immerse ourselves in the River - Ankle, knee, waist, chest... we find ourselves swimming in the River. We allow the River to take us wherever the Spirit desires. We need to participate in what the Holy Spirit is doing in our church!

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Elder Ee Yang shares the concern that post-pandemic, coming together physically for Sunday service has become not a priority or commitment for some in the church. Is this a challenge that you are facing? Why is it important to gather regularly?
2. Read Ezekiel 47:9-10. God desires for people to be saved. Who are you praying for to be saved or to return to God's family? What are practical steps you personally or as a Cell take to reach out?
3. Elder Ee Yang declares that when the Spirit flows, barrenness turns into fruitfulness. He invites RiverLifers to immerse ourselves in the River – see Revelation 22:1-2 – and allow the River to take us wherever the Spirit desires. What is the Holy Spirit impressing on your heart and mind to do in this season?
