

Cell Guide

DATE: 1 JAN 2023 | SPEAKER: ELDER EE YANG | TOPIC: SEIZING THE DEFINING MOMENT | SCRIPTURE: DEUTERONOMY 1:19-36

SPIRITUAL OBJECTIVES

At the end of the sermon discussion, cell members will:

1. Find God's mandate for their lives in 2023, and endeavour to walk in it.
2. Focus on God's promises in His Word, and not on the problems they will face.
3. Commit to follow Jesus wholeheartedly, come what may in the new year.

SERMON SUMMARY

In this first message for 2023, Elder Ee Yang shared from the story of Israel as they are about to enter the Promised Land after 40 years in the desert. He gave us three lessons on how we too, like Israel, must position ourselves to enter this new year with all its challenges ahead. In order for God's life, fruitfulness and blessings to flow out of our lives, marriage, family, work and community, we need to align ourselves with God's purposes.

To seize the defining moment as we enter this new season, Elder Ee Yang exhorts us to:

1. Walk in God's mandate
2. Focus on the promise, not the problem
3. Follow the Lord wholeheartedly

SERMON RECAP

2021 was the year of languishing. 2022 was the year of being overwhelmed. 2023 will be the year of facing global challenges – rising costs of living, inflation, interest rates, and a looming recession.

To see God's life, fruitfulness and blessings flow out of our lives, family, work, community and nation, we need to align ourselves with God's purposes (John 15:16).

Deuteronomy means Second Law or God's laws given a second time to Israel as they prepare to enter the Promised Land. This is the defining moment for the new nation of Israel. God is preparing them for His next move.

The main message of Deuteronomy is: Be faithful to God's plan for your life!

Some of us have meandered in our journey with God during the pandemic. To get back to our Promised Land – our God-given mandate – we must find our bearings and return to God, individually and as a church. There are three lessons for us to remember as we enter this new season in 2023:

1. Walk in God's Mandate (Deuteronomy 1:19-21)

Like Israel, God has called us to be His treasured possession. We are to be a kingdom of priests and a holy nation. We are to be witnesses to God's goodness, character and power to people around us. We are called to behold God's presence and reveal His glory. We are called to be salt and light so that people will taste, see, and believe in God.

How this mandate is expressed will look different for each of us. Some are called into business, or government, or arts and entertainment, while some are called to be homemakers. In every arena, we are called to bring God's presence, blessings and fruitfulness to our family, workplace, community and nation.

We need to know our mandate because our mandate becomes our compass. When we walk in our mandate, we live in God's purpose. Some of us may have deviated from God's mandate. If so, God wants you to return to Him.

2. Focus on the Promise not the Problem (Deuteronomy 1:26-32)

Instead of focusing on the Promised Land, Israel rebelled, grumbled and questioned God's character in the challenges they face.

When we walk in His mandate, it doesn't mean we will have no problems or challenges. Sometimes problems get bigger because the enemy will do anything to stop us from fulfilling our mandate. We do not deny the problems; we acknowledge them but we do not allow them a place of influence in our life to disrupt God's plan.

We focus on God's promise. He will fight for us and carry us through the problem when we seek to fulfil His mandate for His glory.

3. Follow the Lord Wholeheartedly (Deuteronomy 1:32-36)

What's so special about Caleb? Because he followed the Lord wholeheartedly. Our mandate flows from our relationship with God. Our endeavour has to be cradled by our encounter with God. We must follow the Lord with all our heart. To be faithful is a choice, not a feeling.

God has great plans for us in 2023. God is calling us to a land of milk and honey. He has wonderful promises for us, our family, our work and our ministry. (Deuteronomy 8:1-9)

But following Jesus will mean making sacrifices; it will inconvenience us, but it will also bring us fulfilment and great joy. Practically speaking, we need to:

- Come physically to worship God on Sunday
- Be connected to a cell group
- Serve the Lord in a ministry

Some of you may feel you have been disqualified, failed, messed up, or even think God has given up on you. He hasn't. He is a God of second chances, and He will take you into the Promised Land. He has redeemed you and He will restore you. He will bring you into His divine presence, fruitfulness and blessings. Are you willing to seize this defining moment and say yes to God?

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

- 1. Are you stepping into the new year with excitement and anticipation? Or do you feel worn out and overwhelmed from the weight of last year?

Leader's Notes

This is a relate question. Just because we are Christians it doesn't mean we will be safe from the storms of life. Yes, God knows when we are overwhelmed, and while He does not promise to keep us from those moments, He does promise to be there with us through them. Sharing our load honestly with one another is a great way to acknowledge we are not going through it alone.

"We know that all things work together for the good of those who love God, who are called according to His purpose." - Romans 8:28

Transition

Some of our struggles can be very hard but our little mustard seed of faith in God and knowing He will never leave us can help us find small mercies during our struggles to thank God for.

- 2. Take a few moments to think back over 2022. What, or who, can you give thanks to God for? How can you be grateful even in your trials and challenges?

Leader's Notes

This is a reflect question for members to ponder on the past year and all its ups and downs, joys and pains and everything in between. There will be some things we would rather forget, and some things we will always celebrate, but through them all, by God's grace, we can still find reasons to thank God for, e.g. experiences that have taught us, and people who have helped us.

"Give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you." - 1 Thessalonians 5:18

Transition

Moving forward, we shall continue to allow the Holy Spirit to guide us in the year ahead as we follow His leading.

- 3. As you look ahead into 2023, what steps will you take to find God's mandate for your life and walk in it? Which areas in your discipleship journey need a reboot in the new year and what are your plans to attain them?

Leader's Notes

This is a response question for members to share how God has spoken into their lives through the first message of the year and what they will consider to do to put the three lessons into practice. What is the mandate God has for your life in 2023 and how will you walk in it? How can you focus on God's promises for you and not on the problems you will face? What sins or distractions will you forsake this year in order to follow the Lord wholeheartedly?

"If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me. For whoever would save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will find it." - Matthew 16:24-25

Closing

As we close the year 2022 behind us, let us look ahead to the new year with hope and joy, knowing God is always good and He will never fail us. Let us rededicate our lives to follow Christ wholeheartedly in 2023.

PRAYER

Consider dividing the group into micro-groups for a deeper time of sharing as well as praying for the following items:

1. Sermon Application

- That God will help us in “forgetting what is behind and straining toward what is ahead, and pressing on toward the goal to win the prize for which God has called us heavenward in Christ Jesus.” (Philippians 3:13-14)
- That we will remember “we are God’s handiwork, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God had prepared in advance for us to do.” (Ephesians 2:10)

2. COVID-19 in Singapore

- Praise the Lord for the removal of the vaccinated-differentiated measures.
- Pray for God’s protection in the midst of a high number of community cases.
- Pray for protection against reinfection and the ill effects that it may bring.

3. World

- A swift end to the COVID-19 crisis globally, if not a reduction in cases in third world nations, and a stable environment where humans and virus coexist.
- Pray for God’s providence as we go through a challenging year.

4. Opportunities for Outreach

- Ask the Lord to grant you opportunities to reach out to a non-believing loved one, friend, or colleague this week as we seek to mature in Christlikeness.
