

Cell Guide

DATE: 26 NOV 2023 | SPEAKER: PS BEN KC LEE | TOPIC: JOHN THE BAPTIST –
PREPARING FOR JESUS | SCRIPTURE: MATTHEW 3:1-12

SPIRITUAL OBJECTIVES

At the end of the sermon discussion, cell members will:

1. Come to grasp how important repentance is to prepare for the return of Jesus.
2. Practise daily repentance that bears fruit.

SERMON SUMMARY

We are prepared for Jesus' return through genuine repentance. True repentance always results in a changed life yielding good fruit. You will be living like Jesus is your leader, allowing Him to influence your affections, attitudes, and actions. Prepare for Christ: Repent! Live! Bear Fruit!

SERMON RECAP

1. The Preparer

- John the Baptist was called to prepare the hearts of the people for Jesus, God's Son (Luke 1:16-17).
- He had one message, and it was a message of change. Repentance is a message of change.
- To repent is to completely change our direction in life. It is turning back to obey God, trust Him alone and forsake everything ungodly in life.

2. John's Ministry (v5-6)

- John's baptism was a baptism of repentance to prepare the people for Jesus. It included an open confession of sins.
- The first demonstration of that change of heart and mind is submitting to water baptism. When we're baptised, we declare that we've repented of our sins and put our faith in Christ.
- John's ministry catalysed revival.

3. Our King

- He's at hand (v2-3).
- The Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world is on His way back. Because Jesus is at hand, so is the Kingdom of Heaven.
- This greater One coming after John comes with a greater baptism (v11). The baptism of the Spirit came at Pentecost (v11). The baptism of fire refers to future judgment (v12).
- John announces the coming of the day of the Lord. Jesus will come bringing judgement and salvation.
- The same two options lie before us today: Fruit or fire. Fruitful repentance brings grace (v12a) and fruitless repentance brings fiery judgement (v12b).

- This final separation is the reason for our preparation (2 Thessalonians 1:7-9). The consequence of ignoring this is the coming wrath (v7) and unquenchable fire (v12).
- The life that pleases God starts with the repentance of sins. Those who repent have no fear of His wrath.

4. Our Preparation

- We get ready for Jesus by repenting! His Kingdom can only be entered through repentance. We cannot have true repentance without a changed life.
- A changed life yields good fruit.
- Characteristics of fruitful repentance:
 - a. Continual (v7) – Fruitful repentance is not a one-time action. It’s a daily denial of the lusts of the flesh, an ongoing death to this world and life in Christ. It’s a life of continually turning away from sin and toward Christ (Luke 9:23).
 - b. Personal (v9) – Sin is a grave offence against the holiness of God. Repentance that is deep, honest, and personal leads to God’s grace working in our lives. Personal repentance bears the fruit of holiness in our lives.
 - c. Immediate (v10) – The “axe is already at the root” means total destruction. What is chopped down will be thrown into the fire. Act now and get right with God. Not someday, but today.
- We bear good fruit by,
 - a. trusting Christ,
 - b. living with Him as leader to allow Him to influence our actions and,
 - c. faithfully obeying His Word.

In Matthew 3:1-12, John the Baptist prepares the way for Jesus. John’s message is to repent and bear fruit in keeping with repentance. Prepare for Christ: Repent! Live! Bear Fruit!

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Why is confession of sins and repentance central to the preparation for the coming of the Kingdom of Heaven?
2. If Christ were to appear today to gather His wheat into the barn and burn the chaff with unquenchable fire, would you be ready? Do you want to be ready?
3. How does Romans 8:1 help us to grasp the role of continual repentance in our Christian lives?
